|                          | References                                | Sacrifice  | Blood   | Priests  | Application   |
|--------------------------|---|--|---|--|---|
| Burnt Offering    | Lev. 1:1-17;6:8-13                    | The entire animal, except the skin, was burned on the altar  | Sprinkled around the altar  | The priests received the skin  | Christ's complete sacrifice   |
| Meal Offering     | Lev. 2:1-16;6:14-18                   | Fine flour or cakes made from the flour; a handful was burned on the altar   | None  | All but a handful was given to the priests   | Christ's sinlessness typified in the lack of leaven                   |
| Peace Offering    | Lev. 3:1-17;7:11-21, 28-34;19:5-8 | The animal's fat was burned; the one bringing the offering ate some of the meat  | Sprinkled around and on the altar   | Breast, shoulder, and leavened bread were to be eaten by the priests   | Christ's sacrifice grants believers peace with God                    |
| Sin Offering      | Lev. 4:1-35;6:24-30                   | Sin of a priest or the entire congregation: The animal's fat was burned on the altar, the rest of the animal was burned outside the camp | Taken inside the Holy Place, sprinkled 7 times toward the veil and smeared on the horns of the altar of incense; the rest was poured out at the base of the altar of burnt offering | The priests received nothing   | Christ, the perfect and final sin offering, bore our sin on the cross |
|                          |   | Sin of a ruler or common person: All the fat burned on the altar   | Smeared on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; the rest was poured out at the base of that altar  | The priests ate the meat   |   |
| Trespass Offering | Lev. 5:1 –6:7; 7:1-10                 | Animal sacrifice, grain offering, and restitution; fat and handful of grain burned on the altar  | Sprinkled around the altar  | The priests received the skin, all the males of the priestly families ate the meat and cakes made from the grain | Christ has forgiven all our trespasses                                |
